

Neuroscience careers in government and industry

Satellite meeting to 2014 CAN-ACN Meeting

May 25, 2014

Speaker profile:

Mark Patterson

Executive Director, eLife Sciences Publications, Ltd

Mark Patterson was a researcher in human and yeast genetics for 12 years before moving into scientific publishing in 1994 as the Editor of Trends in Genetics. After a few years at Nature, where he was involved in the launch of the Nature Reviews Journals, he moved to the non-profit open-access startup publisher PLoS in 2003. As an editor, Mark helped to launch several of the PLoS Journals and was appointed as Director of Publishing in 2005. He was also one of the founders of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association. In November 2011, Mark joined the eLife team and has been building the professional staff team in Cambridge, UK, to help get the journal off the ground.

More information about this meeting at:

<http://can-acn.org/satellite-neuroscience-careers-in-government-and-industry>