

Canadian Association for Neuroscience
2026 Public Lectures

CAN-ACN

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR NEUROSCIENCE
ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DES NEUROSCIENCES

Je Me Souviens: Montréal, the Memory City

Scan for tickets

Sunday, May 17, 2026, 5PM - 8PM

Jeanne Timmins Amphitheatre- The Neuro/Montreal Neurological Institute-Hospital
3801 University St. Montreal, QC H3A 2B4

Join us for free public lectures about the past, present and future of memory research in Montreal followed by a reception and book signing!

Eric Andrew-Gee

The Globe and Mail

*Of Two Minds: The Brilliant, Tragic Friendship
That Invented Montreal
Neuroscience*

Mihaela Iordanova, Ph.D.

Concordia University

Memory Across Eras: From Intervention to Imagination

Blake Richards, Ph.D.

The Neuro, Mila, McGill

University & Google
*Why AI needs literal
synapses*

Presented in collaboration with

McGill

Faculty of Science

Faculté
des sciences

McGill

Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences

DETAILS AND TICKETS:

[https://can-acn.org/meeting-2026/
public-lectures-je-me-souviens-montreal-the-memory-city/](https://can-acn.org/meeting-2026/public-lectures-je-me-souviens-montreal-the-memory-city/)